County Valuation Climbs 8½ Million During Past Year

San Mateo County's assessed valuation has soared to an all-time high of $153,045,819, an increase of more than 8½ million dollars over last year, County Assessor Martin J. Flynn reported Monday.

Flynn attributed the huge increase primarily to new construction.

The assessments were based on 50 per cent of the 1940-41 market value.

This year's increase over the 1945 assessed valuation is $8,670,219.

Operative property (public utilities) is assessed at $15,656,160, an increase of $1,229,780 over last year. The secured roll, on which the basic county roll is set (plus operative roll), is raised $5,184,237. Unsecured personal property valuation is up $2,059,191.

Redwood City assessed valuation was up $641,055, from $9,196,530 in 1945 to $9,837,585 this year. Redwood City's increase is the second highest in the county.

San Mateo's increase ranks first, from $20,302,010 to $21,332,775, an increase of $1,030765. Flynn attributed this increase to the extensive building program and to reassessments made during the year particularly of the San Mateo business district.

San Carlos was third in the county's increased assessed valuation, jumping from $4,941,100 to $5,478,695, a boost of $537,595.

Net gain in the unincorporated areas is $1,217,585, from $36,328,715 to $37,546,300. The land valuation is $19,509,385; improvements $18,597,035; personal property, $1,487,515; exemptions, $2,047,635.

Seventy-five per cent of the exemptions are for veterans Flynn said.

The board of supervisors, sitting as a board of equalization, Monday accepted the assessment roll as submitted by Flynn.

Controller Fred E. Beer said that now that the figures on the assessed valuation are available his office can start figuring on the basic tax rate.

"I know it will go up," Beer declared, "but I don't know how much."

Beer said the tax rate would be figured the last week in August.

Solvent credits showed a decrease of $57,844, due primarily to strikes in industries, Flynn said. Possessory interest showed a gain of $401,238.

Assessed valuation on veterans' welfare property was up $39,643.

Increases in assessed valuation in other cities of the county are:

Atherton: Up $173,635, from 1945 valuation of $5,464,150, to $5,637,785 for 1946.

Belmont: $128390, from $1,554,135 to $1,682,525.

Colma: $1875, from $559,390 to $561,265.

Daly City: $360,865, from $4,316,995 to $4,677,860.

Hillsborough: $199,095, from $11,092,565 to $11,291,660.

Menlo Park: $145,250, from $2,666,520 to $4,811,770.

San Bruno: $77,615, from $4,636,805 to $4,714,420.

South San Francisco: $474,907, from $9,269,923 to $9,744,830.

Total increase for all cities: $3,966,652, from $87,630,523 to $91,597,175.

Redwood City's land valuation amounts to $3,580,120; improvements, $7,305,130; personal property, $343,785; exemptions, $1,391,450.

4 Persons Injured In County Accidents

A rear tire blowout which caused their automobile to turn over in a ditch near the Belle Haven underpass on Bayshore Hwy. Wednesday sent two women to Palo Alto Hospital with crushed chests, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Two persons suffered minor injuries Tuesday afternoon on Coast Hwy. near the north county line when the motorcycle they were riding struck a parked car.

Hurt in the accident near the Belle Haven underpass were Mrs. Mae Steckney, 42, San Francisco, and her aunt, Mrs. Freda Earle, 71, who was visiting from Canada. The car was driven by Lorne W. Steckney, 41.

According to the CHP, Mrs. Steckney grabbed the steering wheel when the tire blew out and the car rolled over into a ditch and landed right side up.

Steckney and his daughter, Gloria, 18, were uninjured.

The occupants of the car were en route to Long Beach for a family reunion.

Thomas D. Payne, 24, and Orlea La Fon, 25, both of San Francisco, were hurt in the motorcycle mishap. They were taken to Junipero Serra Hospital for treatment. The motorcycle skidded 90 feet from the point of impact, the CHP reported.

A Stanford student, Walton E. Brown, 20, was uninjured when his car overturned at 6 p.m. Tuesday on Manzanita Rd. east of Mountain Home Rd., Woodside.

POLIO IN S.C. COUNTY

SAN JOSE—Santa Clara County has its first infantile paralysis case of the year, it was disclosed Tuesday at the county hospital. The victim, a young girl from the Saratoga-Los Gatos area, was said to be in a critical condition in a respirator.

Heavy Traffic ...Only 2 Hurt

Although the California Highway Patrol reported the heaviest traffic in months traveled over San Mateo County's highways over the weekend, it reported only one injury accident.

The heavy traffic was attributed to a combination of sunny weather which brought San Franciscans to the Peninsula, and to the thousands of Shriners who were flocking to San Francisco.

Mrs. Elthea H. Fellows, 37, of Oakland, suffered a fractured collarbone at 10:45 o'clock Sunday night on Bayshore Hwy. at Mills Field in the only highway injury accident reported. She was treated at Mills Memorial Hospital in San Mateo.

Mary Lang, South San Francisco, who suffered minor injuries in the same accident, also was treated at Mills Hospital.

The CHP reported Mrs. Fellows, who was headed south on Bayshore Hwy., stopped to make a left turn into Mills Field and her car was struck from the rear by a car driven by Kenneth W. Lang, 21, of South San Francisco.

Leonardo Lopez of San Francisco, who was arrested early Sunday morning by Palo Alto police on a charge of drunk driving, had a hold placed on him by the CHP, which reported he was involved in a hit-run property damage accident on Bayshore Hwy. a block south of University Ave., East Palo Alto, before his arrest.

The CHP reported his car struck one belonging to Leroy N. Moore, 201 Cowper St., Palo Alto, inflicting extensive damage.

Incendiary Fires Rage In San Carlos

San Carlos' Fire Dept. bore the brunt of the weekend's blaze business, with a house fire Saturday night, and four incendiary grass Monday morning when he was refires Sunday.

A fire which was apparently caused by a cigarette burned a hole in the floor of the home of Elbert L. Williams at 144 Beverly Dr., San Carlos.

Flames destroyed a chesterfied, burned through the hardwood floor of the living room and a sub-floor beneath, and burned a light cord, blowing a fuse, and stopping the electric clock at 10 p.m. The Williams' family was out, but Fire Chief Clark, who was called to the home at their return at 11:07, estimated the fire had been burning since shortly after 8 p.m.

A window-closing habit of Mrs. Williams prevented the blaze being fanned into a more destructive fire. Smoke damage in the building was heavy.

Despite a strong denunciation and threat to have fire-bugs prosecuted, four more fires were set in San Carlos Sunday evening.

At 7:10 Sunday night a grass fire was set at 1820 San Carlos Ave. A car filled with juveniles was seen to leave the area a few minutes earlier.

At 7:56 a man was observed to throw a lighted match into a grass plot at Eaton Ave., near the highway. Flames sprang up immediately, but the man walked away. At 9 p.m. another grass fire was put out on the highway, half a block from Eaton Ave. Clark said this fire was also set, possibly by the same man.

The fourth fire came earlier, at 8:35 p.m. when police turned in an alarm for a set fire on San Carlos Ave., near Chestnut St.

Belmont had an easier weekend, with just one small grass fire at 3:15 p.m. Sunday on Bayview and Forrest Sts. There was no damage.

The Woodside Fire Dept. also answered but one call, to a small grass fire on the Mills Estate on Manzanita Way Sunday afternoon.

Redwood City Firemen gratefully reported "We haven't had a fire in two days."

Water Shortage On Decrease

Water shortages in Redwood City are not as severe as last Summer Lisle Winter, street superintendent, said this week.

Winter recalled that last Summer at this time the city water department was besieged by householders who at times couldn't obtain enough water to take a bath. Winter explained that last Summer many gardeners were watering victory gardens on Sunday afternoons and that this drained the capacity in city mains.

This Summer, he continued, the department has not received the many complaints it did last year. He attributed the falling off of complaints to three reasons:

1. This Summer is cooler than last and consequently not as much water is being used.
2. This Summer not as many gardens have been planted.
3. Some minor additions have been made to the city water system.

As yet the city has not been able to obtain the pipe it needs to correct the system, but it has installed two Office of Civilian Defense pumps at a reservoir. These two pumps, Winter explained, are in use daily to keep a reservoir full which is serving the Emerald Lake section. A temporary expedient, they have not solved the shortage in that area, but have improved it to a certain degree. He said that Emerald Lake householders were cooperating by conserving the water they used wherever possible.

Although the city is using just slightly less water than it did last year, Winter said its use is spread over larger sections of the day. He attributed the large water use to the many new homes which have been completed and said that the peak drain on the system was still from 5 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. Water users who operate oustide those hours, he claimed, would probably not have any difficulty in obtaining all the water they needed.

City Mgr. E. W. Blom has promised that the city system will be improved year by year as soon as possible. He explained earlier this year that the city system was badly in need of repairs and additions. During the war years while the city was growing no additions were possible and even efforts to keep the system in proper condition were curbed.

VA Hospital Fires 4 More

Three more attendants at the Veteran's Administration Neuropsychiatric Hospital were fired after investigatons revealed that they had disobeyed orders regarding the treatment of patients, Maj. Gen. Albert W. Waldron, manager of the hospital, announced this morning.

The three discharged brings to a total of seven the number of attendants at the Palo Alto facility who have been discharged during the past two weeks for mistreatment of patients.

July 13, four male attendants were ousted for "punching, pushing, and kneeing patients" without provocation, and fifth was permitted to resign after hospital officials found him intoxicated on the hospital grounds.

The men fired are Sheldon Ledwell, 26, Jonesboro, Tenn.; John W. Brissey, 40, Plattsmouth, Neb.; and Halcolm Easley, 26, Gillsburg, Miss. All had been employed at the hospital for less than six months.

Building Advice Given to Vets

A warning to veterans against making advance payments to contractors was voiced Wednesday by Floyd D. Granger, San Mateo County veterans' service officer.

Granger said he was passing along a warning from the California Department of Veterans Affairs. The state organization pointed to a condition in Los Angeles. There, it said, "some contractors are taking advantage of the present scarcity of materials to obtain large advance payments for construction work, on the promise they can get all materials for a job. Obviously said promises cannot be fulfilled in the present market."

The state organization said a Los Angeles County Grand Judy had found that money gained by contractors in this manner was extremely difficult to recover even if the promised work was not undertaken.

Wins Navy Discharge

Coxswain Robert S. Butwell, son of Mrs. Sidney Butwell of 290 Lowell St., was discharged recently from the navy at the separation center at Camp Shoemaker, Calif.

Memorial Buildings Issue May Go to Voters

If a $750,000 bond issue is approved by San Mateo County voters in the November election five war memorial buildings will rise in Peninsula cities as soon as such construction again becomes possible.

This is the plan now being worked upon by three county groups, the Joint Veterans Committee, headed by T. Louis Chess, San Mateo; the County Planning Commission and the County Board of Architects.

Largest structure, to cost $350,000, will serve the three cities of Burlingame, San Mateo and Hillsborough. Exact location has not yet been decided. Cities are to furnish sites for the buildings.

Redwood City and South San Francisco have already provided sites, Daly City is negotiating now and the county has set aside 12 acres in Half Moon Bay for the buildings, according to Frank S. Skillman, secretary of the Planning Commission.

Sentiment in the three cities favors San Mateo Point as the local location but agreement has not yet been reached.

Chess said plans were to divide the $400,000 among remaining county cities as follows: Redwood City $125,000; South San Francisco, $100,000; Daly City, $100,000; Half Moon Bay, $50,000 and Pescadero, $25,000. Amounts will be set finally by the county board of supervisors.

It was originally proposed to use $500,000 from county general funds for the buildings, but the board of supervisors upped the amount and proposed a bond issue to cover a post-war building program that would include a relief home, additions to the county jail and courthouse and a juvenile detention home as well as the memorial buildings.

The present proposal has been referred to the district attorney's office for preparation of the necessary legal documents to enable the board to approve the measure in time to get it on the ballot.

Preliminary sketches of proposed buildings at Redwood City and Daly City have been made by James Mitchell nad Herbert Clark of the board of architects, and consultations held with interested groups.

District Attorney Ferrell estimated the proposition will be ready for board action at the first meeting in August.

Board Asked To Remove Air Restrictions

George B. Gillin, president of Allied Air Transportation, Inc., Monday asked the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors to assist in removing restrictive regulations "which would curtail and hamper" the independent air transport business.

Gillin declared that returned military pilots are developing the independent air transport business to supplement and augment major airlines and said that eventually the smaller plane lines will bring closer contact and shorten time distance between West Coast producers and consumers throughout the country.

He said, however, the examiners of the Civil Aeronautics Board in Washington are proposing restrictive regulations which would curtail and hamper this new development.

The C.A.B. will consider the restrictive clauses on Aug. 1.

The supervisors instructed County Clerk William H. Augustus to ask Gillin for a copy of the restrictive clauses.

Belmont Council Gets Setback Plan

In a short session Monday the Belmont City Council took the recommendations of the planning commission in regard to a setback line proposal for the Old County Rd. under advisement to be dealt with further at a later meeting.

Discussion of the proposal brought out complaints from a few individuals who claim that they will bear the brunt of the setback line's incursion onto property bordering the road.

Mulch Over Soil Saves Water, Smothers Weeds

Mulching is an agricultural practice that has been known and followed for hundreds of years.

A mulch is a substance such as straw, paper, leaves or comparable material covering the soil surface in such a way as to protect plant life from heat, cold or drought.

During hot weather an effective mulch will lower the soil temperature by several degrees. This is usually most noticeable at the surface of the ground. In winter the proper mulching materials actually will keep out the cold, thereby protecting the roots under the surface.

Generally speaking, a mulch should be spread across the surface of the soil approximately two inches thick. Of course, these measurements may vary depending on local conditions such as the type of soil, humidity and climatic factors. Also, in locations subjected to severe winds a heavier mulch may be required. A persistent wind may dry out the surface of the soil much faster than the rays of the sun even on a hot day.

A mulch hinders the escape of moisture at the surface. The moisture in the land is constantly rising to the surface by capillary action. By spreading a layer of peat moss or some other suitable mulching material on the top of the land this capillary action is interfered with and evaporation reduced to a minimum and soil aeration, quite as important, is aided. If the soil moisture is allowed to escape freely the plant roots may be deprived of their required water.

Many materials may be used to advantage for mulching purposes. Straw and leaves present a good appearance and have proven quite effective for this purpose. However, the most readily obtainable material is peat moss. This product does not deteriorate and may be stored for an indefinite period. The most economical method of purchasing peat moss is to buy it by the bale.

Peat moss tends to dry out and when the bale is opened large chunks of it will probably be found caked together. The material should be put through a mesh wire and thoroughly dampened before being used. In this condition it will be easier to handle it. Peat moss has a tremendous capacity for retention of moisture; tests have shown that this material will absorb up to 800 times its own weight in water.

Menlo Council Delays Action On City Rent Boost Ordinance

The ordinance regulating rent increases introduced at the last meeting of the Menlo Park City Council was tabled by the council Monday pending either the passage of state or federal legislation. A special adoption meeting will be held next Tuesday if state or federal groups fail to approve a measure.

Mayor Charles P. Burgess set the date for the special meeting just in case the state or federal legislation restricting rent increases does not become effective before the end of the month. July 31 marks the end of the 30-day warning period which landlords were required to give tenants before raising rents. The meeting will be automatically canceled with the restoration of the OPA or the passage of rent regulatory legislation in Sacramento.

Since no protests were received concerning the annexation of 16 designated lots in University Park the council introduced the adoption ordinance. The property lies between Vine St. and Santa Cruz Ave. at the southwest city limits.

A new position of superintendent of parks was created and Max Mielke, present superintendent of streets and building inspector was nominated to fill the job. The resolution stipulates that he "shall perform such duties as are determined by the city council" and shall be paid a salary of $25 a month, effective July 1.

The salary of the city clerk was raised $25 a month and that of the city treasurer $10 a month ,both effective July 1. These salary increases are in accordance with the new state law which allows the salaries of paid city officials to be raised during the term of office.

A petition from 23 residents of the area surrounding the Delno Ice Co. at 620 El Camino Real, asking that the council take action to eliminate the noise of the fan in the ice plant which "constitutes a public nuisance." The petition was referred to Wallace Brown, commissioner of health and lights.

The weed abatement report for 1946 was adopted. The figure of $1,641.27, the total assessment necessary for the project, will be sent to the county controller to be placed on the tax roll.

Belmont Building Nears Million

Building permits for 148 homes, to be built at a cost of $907,047, were issued in Belmont in the period between June 25 and July 22, according to the monthly report of the Belmont building inspector.

The bulk of these homes is made up of a housing development which is being laid out at a cost of over $2,000,000.

Total revenue earned by the building inspector's office was $1912 for the period, including $1828 in permit fees and $84 in inspection fees.

SoapBox Derby Here Set For Next Sunday Afternoon

Soapbox Derby sponsors issued a last call for entrants today, as local kids worked to ready their racers for the big event next Sunday.

In a week's time the racers will haul their soap box speedsters to the top of Eagle Hill for the contest which will decide the winning cars to be sent to San Francisco for the Northern California finals. The winner in San Francisco will be sent to Akron for the national classic, called the "Greatest Amateur Racing Event in the World."

A week is not much time, but it enough for a boy who wants a crack at the valuable prizes to be won here, in San Francisco and in Akron, to build a racer which may take the championship.

Entrance blanks, free wheels and axles, rule books and valuable engineering suggestions, are waiting at the Davies Auto Co., but, according to Gene Lundin of the company, any kids interested should come in today. Time is getting short.

R.C. Firemen Extinguish Two Minor Blazes

Redwood City firemen extinguished two minor blazes Monday. At 12:11 p.m. they put out a grass fire at the end of A St. which was under control by the time they arrived, and at 4:38 p.m. they put out an automobile fire at Charter St. and Middlefield Rd. An emergency brake was on fire.

MOTORIST JAILED

Alfred Nicholas Barthes of 141 Whipple St. was arrested at 12:10 a.m. Saturday by the San Carlos Police Dept., on a charge of drunken driving on Laurel Ave. He was released on $100 bail.

Edmonds Seeks Property Man

Supervisor Henry W. Edmonds of Redwood City Monday afternoon renewed his request for a fulltime county property man to keep a check on property owned by the county.

He withdrew his motion for further study, however, after county elective officials declared they make inventories of their own departments.

The supervisors voted for all county offices to give inventory reports to the county clerk. The vote was superfluous, County Clerk William H. Augustus said, however, as it already is a state law that such reports be made.

Although he made no motion to set up such a position, Supervisor Edmonds told other members of the board a watchman should be on duty at the courthouse 24 hours of every day.

Kaehler to Appeal Slaying Verdict

Atty. Nathan Coghlan said Monday an appeal would be filed Aug. 25 from the decision made by a jury against his client, Ronald F. Kaehler, 23. The San Mateo youth faces a one to 10 year prison term. He was found guilty July 12 of the manslaughter shooting to death of Lloyd W. Slone, 25, a war veteran on Apr. 2.

Coghlan and Kaehler's other attorney, William A. O'Brien announced when the verdict was returned that they would file for an appeal.

The court found that the son of the San Francisco Stock Exchange president shot and killed the navy veteran at 150 West Third Ave., San Mateo.

Charged with murder, Kaehler was found guilty of manslaughter.

Two Vet Housing Units Underway

Progress is being made on the two temporary veteran housing projects in San Mateo, under the auspices of the Housing Authority of San Mateo County, F. A. Bloom, director, reported.

Actual construction operations have started on the Veteran Student Project at San Mateo Junior College and the contract for the sewer, water and gas installations will be let during the coming week. This project will be known as Campus Manor.

The Veteran Project on Peninsula Ave., adjacent to Coyote Point, is in approximately similar situation. Site grading started Monday.

The work is going forward under the supervision and inspection of W. D. Soule Co., civil engineers, of San Mateo.

Menlo Man Admits Drunk Charge

D. W. Dodge, 20, 4049 El Camino Way, Menlo Park, was arrested by Menlo Park police at 12:10 a.m. Sunday on charges of drunken driving after he drove his car into the rear of an automobile driven by Charles Dupee, 648 Roble Ave., Menlo Park, when the latter was slowing to make a turn onto Roble Ave. from El Camino Real.

Dodge was confined in the county jail at Redwood City until this morning when he was released on $250 bail after pleading guilty and waiving preliminary hearing before Judge Edward J. Ryan in Menlo Park Police Court. He will appear before Judge Ryan Thursday.

Dodge and Mrs. Frances Dupee, 31, wife of the driver of the other car, received minor injuries and were treated at Palo Alto Hospital.

Recommend Setback Lines Near Southern Pacific Depot

Redwood City planning commissioners will again recommend the installation of setback lines on property surrounding the Southern Pacific Co. station.

Don S. Wilson, city engineer, said the commission at a city hall meeting Monday decided to recommend these 10-foot setbacks:

1. On the northwesterly side of James Ave. between El Camino Real and the station.

2. On the southerly side of Winkleblеck St. between California Ave. and the station.

3. On the easterly side of California between Winkleblеck and James.

Wilson said the commission made the recommendations because it believes those streets will have to be widened in the future to care for traffic around the station.

If the city council approves the recommendations it will mean that land owners may not build within setback limits. The move would be made to prevent erection of buildings which would later have to be condemned for street widening purposes.

Arraignment Set for Newton

Vorhes J. Newton, 24-year-old Alameda glazier charged with murdering his two infant children on the San Mateo County Coastside and of assault with intent to murder his wife, Lorraine, will be arraigned next Monday, Dep. Dist. Atty. Fred M. Wyckoff reported this week.

The arraignment will be held before Superior Court Judge A. R. Cotton.

An information charging Newton with the three crimes was filed Monday morning.

Dr. Joseph, Catto, San Francisco psychiatrist, is scheduled to examine Newton in the jail here sometime this week.

Guernsey Faces Second Charge

Henry Guernsey, 24, 49 Maple St., Atherton, was arraigned Monday afternoon before Justice of the Peace Edward I. McAuliffe here on a charge of resisting arrest in Atherton last Friday, Aug. 5 was set as time to plea.

Guernsey will appear before Police Judge Roland King in Atherton Friday night on a charge of disturbing the peace also placed against him last Friday. He allegedly was creating a disturbance at his home.

S.C. Lieutenant Flies In Shriner Air Show

Lt. Joseph H. Nash, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Nash of San Carlos, piloted one of the 16 jet propulsion planes that "swooshed" across the blue skies over Hamilton Field Monday afternoon in an army demonstration that was part of a two-hour air show staged before 25,000 Shriners and visitors.

TO HEAR PROTEST

The County Board of Supervisors will hear Western Pipe and Steel Co. voice its protest of possessory interest tax assessed against it on Aug. 6, it was announced Tuesday.

Port of R.C. Gets New Fire Engines

Arrival of two fire engines to guard Federal Public Housing Authority properties at the Port of Redwood City was announced Tuesday by Chief Mark E. Ryan.

Ryan, who accepted employment at the port after he retired as Redwood City chief, said the two rigs were formerly used by the army.

He said both were pumpers, one with a capacity of 500 gallons a minute and the other with a capacity of 300 gallons a minute.

Both are hose carriers.

With the arrival of the equipment, Ryan said, he believed his department was in a good position to handle all fires on FPHA property at the port. The two-block area involved, he explained, has 24 water hydrants which develop 130 pounds pressure and from which 2200 gallons of water a minute can be taken. Besides the pumpers the department at the port can depend on stationary pumps at the port to help develop pressure.

$150 Fine Levied Here For Reckless Driving

W. H. (Bud) Thorpe, new Redwood City police judge, has apparently hiked the ante for reckless driving.

He fined John F. McGinnis, 2150 Washington St., San Francisco, $150 for reckless driving on June 22.

In the past the fine for reckless driving has usually been $100.

H. C. Tuchsen Leaves $134,102 Estate

Hans C. Tuchsen, a Redwood City trustee (councilman, from 1914 to 1922, left an estate valued at $134,102.94, Appraiser James A. Lee reported Wednesday.

Mr. Tuchsen, who came to the United States from Germany, died May 31 at the age of 82. He lived at 150 Arch St.

The estate includes $37,431.19 in cash, Redwood City real property valued at $12,500, stocks, bonds and personal property.

Highlights of Regular Army Enlistment

1. Enlistments for 1½, 2 or 3 years. (One-year enlistments permitted for men now in the Army with 6 or more months of service.)

2. Enlistment age from 18 to 34 years inclusive (17 with parents' consent) except for men now in Army, who may reenlist at any age, and former service men depending on length of service.

3. A reenlistment bonus of $50 for each year of active service since such bonus was last paid, or since last entry into service, provided reenlistment is within 90 days after last honorable discharge.

4. Up to 90 days' reenlistment furlough with pay, depending on length of service, with prescribed travel allowance paid to home and return, for men now in the Army who reenlist.

5. Consult your Army Recruiting Officer for other furlough privileges.

6. Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to enlist or reenlist.

7. Option to retire at half pay for the rest of your life after 20 years' service—increasing to three-quarters pay after 30 years' service. (Retirement income in grade of Master or First Sergeant up to $185.63 per month for life.) All previous active federal military service counts toward retirement.

8. Benefits under the GI Bill of Rights assured for men who enlist on or before October 5, 1946.

9. Choice of branch of service and overseas theater (of those still open) on 3-year enlistments.

*Picture Platter of Luncheon Meats, Sliced Tomatoes and Cucumbers
*Potato Salad with *Boiled Salad Dressing
One Slice of Bread Each
Butter Optional
Meringue Peaches
(Fresh peach halves with broiled meringue topping)

Recipe below*

PICTURE PLATTER—Arrange overlapping slices of assorted luncheon meats down center of platter, keeping same kind of meats together. Arrange a row of overlapping tomato slices on one side, and a row of overlapping cucumber slices on the other side. At one end of platter, place a lettuce cup filled with radishes and at the other end, place a lettuce cup filled with olives.

POTATO SALAD

5 med. size potatoes
2 hard-cooked eggs
½ to 1 cup chopped sweet, sour or dill pickles
1½ tsps. salt
1 cup boiled salad dressing
⅓ cup chopped onion

Wash potatoes; cook whole and unpeeled in rapidly boiling water to cover, 30 minutes or until tender; drain, cool. Peel potatoes; dice into ½-inch cubes. Slice eggs. Combine all ingredients; let stand for at least 2 hours in cool place. If desired, add more dressing before serving. Serves 6.

BOILED SALAD DRESSING

2 eggs
1½ cups milk
4 tbsps. flour
3 tbsps. sugar
2½ tsps. dry mustard
4 tbsps. salad oil
⅓ cup mild vinegar
2 tsps. salt

Beat eggs slightly in top of double boiler; add milk and combined dry ingredients and cook over boiling water 10 minutes or until mixture thickens. Remove from heat, add salad oil and vinegar. Cool. Makes 1 cup.

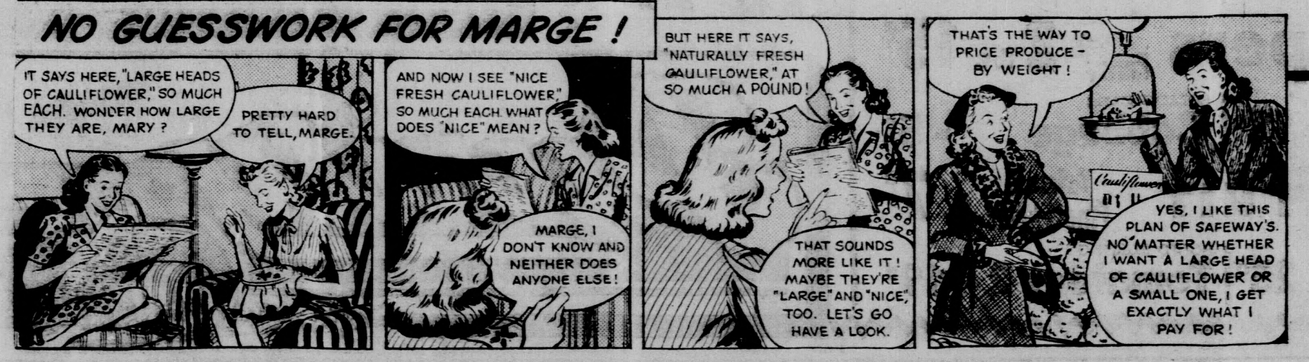
NO GUESSWORK FOR MARGE!



IT SAYS HERE, "LARGE HEADS OF CAULIFLOWER," SO MUCH EACH. WONDER HOW LARGE THEY ARE, MARY?
PRETTY HARD TO TELL, MARGE.
AND NOW I SEE "NICE FRESH CAULIFLOWER" SO MUCH EACH. WHAT DOES "NICE" MEAN?
MARGE, I DON'T KNOW AND NEITHER DOES ANYONE ELSE!
BUT HERE IT SAYS, "NATURALLY FRESH CAULIFLOWER," AT SO MUCH A POUND!
THAT SOUNDS MORE LIKE IT! MAYBE THEY'RE "LARGE" AND "NICE," TOO. LET'S GO HAVE A LOOK.
THAT'S THE WAY TO PRICE PRODUCE - BY WEIGHT!
YES, I LIKE THIS PLAN OF SAFEWAY'S. NO MATTER WHETHER I WANT A LARGE HEAD OF CAULIFLOWER OR A SMALL ONE, I GET EXACTLY WHAT I PAY FOR!
